One day Papyrus was making some Spaghett inside his kitchen when sans ran in.

"Hry papyrus i think you're human trap caught something" saids ness

"Oh boi i got an human" said papyrus whom dropped his spaghetti to go see he's new human. When he found his trap he noticed that it's was not a human but a human with a weird open face thing.

"wHAT THe heck sans!" said papyrus with complete enrage "this am not a human, it's only a Demogorgon!"

"OH i must have been wrong it's not a human it's actually a Demogorgon from Netflix Original: 'Stranger Things' get your 30 day free trial today" saids ness

"Redeeeriarghhghd" proclaim the Demogorgon firmly

"Where in the Underground did this bugger cum from sans!/?/?" Papyrus muttered " and whut do we do with it"

"I think he caME From a gate to the upside-down syndrome" sans said

"Redief-ASYTRGH, yes that's right" the Demogorgon exclaimed with subtle undertones

"Well i cant bee fookin bothered to go to that shoothole and return you so i guesse you'll live with us now" papyrus open the trap and the demogorgon ran out and started biting at him.

"Uh-ho you silly demomangorgon, we're made of bones we won't make a meal for you" papyrus shouted

"Dat's true" said sans universe

"Come on follow uss, well take you to our house"

Papyrus and Post-Cancer Steven Universe took the Demogorgon through Snowdin.

"Hello Papyrus and Sans" said Papyrus and Sans' neighbour whom was a bit of a nonce.

"TYEWEEREREE" shouted the Demogorgon and he was enraged and had a fit and sprang towards the neighbour and sunk his claws into his brittle chest and started tearing his flesh apart as blood spurted out of his body and onto the snow

"Oh Jesus CHRIS I'M BEING MURDED BY A DEMOGORGON THIS HURTS ME AAAAAAAAAAAAAAH" shouted the neighbour as he was being completely devoured by the Demogorgon just like Sans lol.

"Demogorgon don't do that that's mean!" said Papyrus not angrily but disappointedly

But the Demogorgon did not stop chewing away at the bloody remains of Papyrus's neighbour.

"Oh well he was a bit of a nonce anyway" said Sandpaper

2. Chapter 2: Ready Player Fortnite

SaNs and papyrus took their beloved demogorgon inside their house despite that he had just murdered and eaten someone.

"Sann what are we going to do? We must stop him killing people" say papyrus

"Well if we want to know how to deal with him we should probs go back to the basics." said san "So what is that Demogorgon from?"

"Stranger Things"

"And what do Stranger things have a lot of?"

"Forced 80s nostalgia"

"Yeap. And what also has a lot of forced 80s nostalgia?"

"Ready player one!"

"eXactly. We have to must do a ready player one. To the Oasis!" said ness

Sans and Papyrus put on their magic vr headsets and went into the virtual world of the oasis.

"woWWW! Sass we're in oasais!.." said papyrus "I'm all computery and there's a guy over there with ugandan knuckles as his avatar. Ha! Do you know da wae to a funnee memey!"

"Ok papyrus, let's not get distracted, We're in the oasis to solve the demogorgon problem so what do we do now?"

"Let's play a bit of Fortnite, how about that?"

"That's a brilliantly good idea papyrus!1"

Sans and papyrus went into the Fortnite universe of the oasis or whatever the heck they call the world in red Player two. Suddenly the bone bros found themselves flying over the fortnight map in the battlebus.

"Rite, where we droppin bois?" said Sanns.

"Overe there" said papyrus said

Sanny and Paps dropped out of the bus and began to plummet down too the map and then deployed them parachuts and gently floating down into a house.

"Quick papyrus, check that chest, wats in they're?" said sans

"Just pump-action shogun and some ammo." papyrus exclaimed

"Gud, give me"

"No i found"

"Yeah but am better than you, i won like thirty matchs"

"I dont care i found it and im the beast at fortnigte"

"No i'm so much better and every part of me is saying go get 'er"

"No i'm the best and to prove it ill shot you in the face with this shotgun"

Papyrus shot sans in the face with the shotgun. He started bleeding immensely.

"oWwwW! What the HECK papaross! Im down to 5.764 health! aND your my brutha" said sans

"Yeh sorry but you were beng pretty annoying plus it very to tempting to shoot people in the face with a shotgun."said popeyerus

"Do you have any idea how sirius this is? You know what happen if you die in forknite with Ready Brek Player one rules?"

"You die and respawn in another game?"

"No idiom!"

"You DIE IN REEL LIFE?!"

"No this ain't axe art online. In Play a One Ready Set Go, if you die you lose all your stuff you've ever collected."

"That's really bad design who came up with it"

"I donot no i didnt write the book but i don't wanna lose the three thousand quid i scammed off sum children because pf your childish antics. You better find some bandages quik or ill diee."

"Wait a minute, isnt this Blattle royale where only one can survive."

"oH stuff yeah i forgot about that, this were a terrible idea why did we do this in the furst place?"

"Yeah, reflecting on it now im not that sure how this was suposed to sort out our demogorgon problem in the first place, let's just leave."

"Good idea, shame we didn't get to play more 4tnight." said sans.

Sans and papyrus took off there $800 vr sets and went from the oasis to the real reality world again. They were quite please that their eyesight had not been completely ahnihalted by the vr goggles but not quite as pleased and more shcocked really that the demogorgon was no longer in their house and infact absolutely no where to be seen.

"Ooh NO SANS! While we we're playing nightfort in one ready player the dmeogorg escaped our house! He could be anywere now devouring people we hav to find im!"

"K" said sass

3. Chapter 3: Hash, Gems and Netflix

"Yeah that good point actual." Granet said.

"You know you could porbs live in a country under SHaria law. Becau if u went to court your rights would be equivelent to that of a man becaus your a fusion of two females."

"Yea that's a really good idea i shoul do thad."

"Oh yeah that happen, alrigte calm down my version was bette anyway"

"NO I'M GONNA SEND MY LAWYER TO SUE YOUR SKELETON DICK OFF"

Then there was a knock on the door.

"Hellooooo!" shouted a grainy voice "My nama Rick, you mite remember me from the hit show Rick and mortimer inwhich i turn myself into a gherkin and shout 'AM PICKLE RIIIIICK' but anyways im just here because i left my dildo herre when i fuked peerl the over day and i want it bacc. "Hey mister rick harrison me and sans need to find a demolishiongorgon, can we have a ride in your spaceship to go and find 'im?" say Papyrool.

"Yeah sure whateva but i want my dillydough back." said richard.

Pearl threw the rubberwand at rick's forehead. It hurt quite a bit but not tha much.

"Ok lets go bois." said ricky as san and apyruss climb into brick's flying mchine.

"Bye pole" said papyruk

"Bye garnny, sorry about stealin your song and all" sans said while waving sAns, papyrus and Ricky gervaius blasted of into spacce in rikk's ufo,

"There's juss one thin i dont get sans." said pippinruss

"Wat that " red sandstone slabe said

"How were we able to watch fresh prince of bell hair on netflix in steven universe house when steven universe in ammerica and fresh princess only on netflickle in uk?"

"I miss cocaine" said sanold.

4. Chapter 4: A Meeting with Eleven

"Pickle rick is in the house tonite" rickard sang while driving his fly machin with sans and paplerus in the back seat "So what do you bois wann do ?"

"Were like findinng a Demoglobalab or somehing i dont real care" said sasn

"No wait hagn on!" say Papyrus "I did actual watch strangle thing"

"Wat why you not tell us back tehre."

"Soz i got it confused with super 8 because its basically just the same thing but ones a movie and the others a tv show."

"Whatev. What did they do to get rid of the gordemogons anywae?"

"They're was this character called eleven who like kill them with superpowers and stoppe them coming back out of their gate"

"Oh did you say Eleven" said Erick "I know elven i can take you to them"

"Yay pleas do we must need help to dispose off the demigorg." said papyrus

Rick flew through space to a car park in the middle of know where and park his flying machine. All of them got out to find a blue box.

"Hey eleven i bought some friends" said richard

The door of the box opened and out came a big chinned man wearing a bow-tie

"Hello there i'm eLeven" said Eleven

"Oh my God rick you utter fukking idiot, we meant eleven as in the child from strangler thing not the eleventh mother fuccing doctor who you are so stupid go succ a dick." said sanold

"Ok that's a bit harsh, rick only meant well" said eleven

"How was i supposed to know which elevn you meant there are loads of elverns." said Mick

"Yeah ness. At least he brough us to the best doctor and not the edglord twelfth docotr that everyone loves for some raison." said Pappus

"Yea i suppose. Eleven best doctor" said ness

Sudden another blue box fabricated innfront of them and out stepped a sixty year old man waring a hoodie and a pair of shades wich was really cringey.

"Oi Wat da FUKC ARE YOO CHEEKIE WANKAS SAYN ABOU ME! I EM CLEAR BEST DOCTER!" said twelve

"No you are not" said sanss "You're an awful doct. You're too edgy to be the protagonist of a family show. The children dont want to see a greying man give a deep monologue about your corrupted morals or the faults with human society and how aliens are a representation of everything wrong with civilisation. They want to watch a comical man outsmart a bunch of aliens while making witty comebacks and saying a bunch of scientific bullshit just like the original doctors. Elven much better doctor".

"Hey let leaf are opinions on doctors out of this. We still need to get demogogoon and if we have two doctor they'll help tiwce as much." said piprusy

"Well if you need som help you could always use this" said doctor twelve holding up a glowing red crystal

"Wow! What that?"

"It's a chaos emerald and they can do magic shit so that mite help"

Suddenly a massive spaceship landed on Twelve's tardis and out stepped a big purpul man with a glove and wierd lines on his chin like he had a really bad first shave experience.

"Oh what the FAK" said 12ctor "i just had that paint and it cost 149 pound" said twelvvy

"I dont care am Thanos" said thanos "i come here becuase you have infinity stone and i need infinity stones to put on my infinite glove to make half the universe turn into dust"

"Oh but you mistake mr thano" said eleven "this not infine stone this chaos emeral"

"What? There different?" said Stanos "how many magically gems with cool powers could there be?"

"Well there are Garment, Analthyst and Pael" said papyrus

"What am confuse now are they world destroying gems two?"

"No they different" said Rico "The crystal gems are sentient inorganic lifeforms with magical powers that only they can control. The chaos emeralds are not sentiment and only commanded by those who weild them and can destroy univere so yeah they basical the same as infinity stoners."

"Oh cool, so if i had both the Chaos Chaos Committed to the crime emeralds and the philosopher's sorcerer's infinity stones i would be even more really powerful." said Thanal

"Yeah essentially"

"Ok. Looks like this is no longer Avengers 4: Infinite Warfare, this is now Avengers 4: Chaos Emerald warfare and also the infinity stones i still need them. Now give that chaos emerald to me so i can put on my glove"

"No i found" said doctor twelf "you wrecked my Tarded why would i give you."

"Yeah and also your glove only has 6 holes in it and you would need 12 holes for the six infinit stone and 8 gaos emerads." said eleven

"Oh well i guess ill make more holes in glove" said Thans

"Why not just make another glove" said Sanos "isnt you're character all about balance and shit, so you're a bit hypocrtic if you have glove on one hand but not the other"

"Yeah good idea. I will have glove for chaos stones and glove for infinitiy emeralds"

"Yeah but there's 7 chao emrald and 8 infit stone." said paps "one glove would had one more than other that not balance."

"Yeah that's as balanced as a tf2 casual server" said rick

"Hey rick" said morty from rick's space machine back seat "are we actual going to Burg King like you said its been quite a while"

"What was he here all this time and we never saw or hear him?" sad sains

"He said if i spoke hed beat me" said Mortal Combat

"Shut up mortimer you peace of shit, i told you not talk now i beat you" said Ricky gervais

"Alright enough of this nonsense i'm gon kill all you and take chaos infinity crystal" said Granos

"Hey here deal." said sansa tony stark "if you beaten me in dance battle you can kill us and take the infinity arkenstone but if i win you have to go home an feel sad"

"Good deal" said thanos

Than Solo put Thangnam style on on his bluteeth speaker and begin dancing, when the first chorus kick in he start do some intense twerking for the rest of the song non-stop.

"Ha beet that skeleman, id like to see what you're made of." said Thandalf

"I'l hath you kno i am made o-o-o-of swa-a-a-ag,sw-a-a-a-g and i't epiccer than you" said sandman

Sans played Despacito on his phone and did some serious breakdancing throughout the song up until the final Despacito where he hit a legendary dab. The amount of epicness from this dab combined with pure epic from Despacito was enough to flat out disintegrate Thanos.

Thanos die.

"Ha! Now he could not handle epicness of me!" said Sans

"Hey Sans, why didn't we make it so if you win, he helps us get Demogorgon with infinite glove?" said Papyrus

"Oh, who cares if he's dead now?" said Sans
